

Chapter 780

The sound of the cutting machine was loud and shrill!

There were no other sounds at the scene, not even the sound of breathing.

Everyone held their breath!

Because everyone wanted to see if Chuck would get another gem from the last stone!

Was he going to earn a profit?

Nancy's gaze seemed serious and she was getting nervous!

Has she made a mistake?

Thud!

The debris of the stone covered the entire room and out of a sudden, a shade of green appeared.

Everyone was staring at it. It was unbelievable!

"Oh my gosh! It is another piece of imperial jade!"

"How on earth did he do it? Does he have X-ray vision?"

"I admire him so much! Was he pretending to be a fool just now? In fact, he's an expert!"

"Absolutely! Incredible! I've never seen such a thing before. I think it should be a world record. He bought three stones and all three of them turned out to be imperial jade!"

They were all stupefied because it was truly unbelievable!

Such a huge imperial jade might be worth around 1.2 billion!

In other words, Chuck had profited around 700 million from the auction.

Gulp!

Everyone at the scene swallowed hard!

Nancy's face was filled with shock!

Had she really made another mistake?

What was going on?

Nancy couldn't believe her eyes.

Was Chuck a novice or was he actually a veteran?

Yolanda's beautiful eyes widened in shock!

"Alright, help me keep them!" Chuck breathed a sigh of relief, while he thanked his mother in his heart.

Was there anything that his mother didn't know?

The moment the staff member heard Chuck, he was stunned.

"Sell one to me. I'll pay 1.3 billion for it!"

"I'll pay 1.5 billion!"

There was a commotion. Everyone knew that buying such a huge piece of imperial jade would cost a lot of money!

"I'm not selling!" Chuck refused!

Everyone felt a little regretful.

"I regret it. It turns out that we are the fools and we misjudged him. As for the last one, if I insisted on continuing to bid, I could've... Sigh!"

"Me too. I didn't expect it to be an imperial jade!"

They were all sorry!

Regretted that they didn't compete with Chuck just now!

After all, it was an imperial jade!

"Let's go! We can go now!" Chuck shrugged.

Yolanda dragged Nancy along!

Once again, the people burst into an uproar!

"This young man is going to become a legend here!"

They couldn't stop exclaiming!

"This kid doesn't know how to appreciate favors. I'm offering to buy it from him, but he refuses! Can he handle all three pieces of imperial jade?" A sinister boss said slowly. His eyes were fiery red.

"What? Pedro, do you still have any idea?" A sneaky boss said.

"What do you think? The three imperial jades are worth over two billion. I don't believe you're not interested in them!"

"Of course I'm interested!"

"Yes, what are you still waiting for? You often do such things, don't you?" Pedro said coldly.

"You can't say it that way. I just do this from time to time, I don't do it often."

"Don't talk nonsense, go and get the people ready!"

"Okay, I have already asked someone to arrange for it. However, this kid's family should be rich. Will we be in trouble if we do this?"

"You think too much. Kill him secretly and get rid of his body. Who is going to find out? Are you not willing to risk it for 2 billion dollars? It's not easy to make money!" Pedro laughed insidiously.

The two of them clapped their hands in unison and got their men to get ready.

Nancy was very reserved and nervous.

Why?

In the auction earlier, although she had a verbal agreement with Chuck and cooperated with him, she did not take out any money.

Furthermore, she thought that Chuck had made a mistake and would suffer a huge loss!

She didn't expect a profit, and a huge profit at that!

"Don't worry, Chuck is not the kind of person that goes back on his words," Yolanda said to Nancy.

She started to comfort her.

Nancy smiled bitterly. Not go back on his words? But she didn't do anything.

Would Chuck give her money for free?

Was he so generous?

It was impossible. No person would do that, let alone on just a verbal agreement.

"Chuck, regarding the gemstone investment, you should consult that lady that you are collaborating with. I'll prepare a file for you in the next few days and you have to study it." Karen smiled.

Chuck was interested in gemstone investment. She was delighted when she heard that Chuck wanted to turn those jades into necklaces.

It was quite a good idea. If Chuck could turn them into necklaces, then he would definitely profit lots from it.

"Yes, I know. Mom, I'll hang up first." Chuck wanted to have a good talk with Nancy.

His mother's comment was reasonable. In other words, it was rare for a person like Nancy to be so young and yet so experienced.

If she was groomed a little, she could definitely be one of the best gemstone investors.

"By the way, you mustn't stop fighting! Do you understand?" Karen was extremely serious.

The only way for him to continue surviving was for him to establish a huge business empire.

"I know."

"Don't forget that I only have you as my son. You must make sure nothing happens to you."

"Mom, I really have to go now!"

After hanging up, Karen smiled. This child was annoyed that she spoke too much?

Her expression became serious in an instant after her laugh earlier. "Sabina, you've really surprised me..." She thought.

Chuck walked over while Nancy said cautiously, "Chuck, what are you going to do with those three jades?"

"Do you have any ideas?"

"I have an idea. I just estimated that everything should be worth 2.2 billion. I know someone who is willing to buy them for 2.22 billion. There should be no problem." Nancy became very polite.

Chuck shocked her again and again tonight. He was definitely an heir of a super-rich family!

"I don't want to sell it!" Chuck shook his head and said meaningfully.

"You don't want to sell it? Then are you thinking of refining the jades yourself? This requires a lot of connections." Nancy was also in the industry. She knew it would cost an arm and a leg to do that.

"Sure, how much would it cost to invest in a factory? Do you have any connections?"

"You, you want to?"

"Yes, I've called my mom. She also agreed with it."

Nancy couldn't believe it. As expected, he was an heir to a rich family.

"The factory may cost ten billion!"

"Only ten billion? That's fine! Are you interested in collaborating with me?" Chuck shrugged and asked.

Chapter 781

Nancy was stunned!

Only ten billion? Oh my!

How rich was he to say that?

"Are you interested?" Chuck asked.

"I... I..." Nancy stammered. She did not know what to say.

She thought that Chuck's family had at most 10 billion dollars.

That was why he could spend more than one billion to buy the three stones.

But how much did he actually have?

Chuck talked about ten billion dollars like it was nothing to him!

In an instant, Nancy clearly felt the gap between her and Chuck.

"I... I don't have that much money. I can only afford 200 million with my current cash flow." Nancy's voice became softer.

"It's fine, you don't need to pay. As long as you are interested, you can invest and assist me. You can take five percent of the shares. What do you think?" Chuck said with a smile.

Five percent?

Five percent was equivalent to 500 million dollars!

Nancy was shocked again!

"Are... are you serious?" Nancy felt that she might have misheard him. How could she have met such a good person!

No wonder Yolanda said that she could work for Chuck for the rest of her life.

Chuck, as a boss, was really good!

"Of course I'm serious. We can plan a specific program in the next few days. As for the ten billion, I'll make a call to the bank tomorrow," Chuck said.

"Tomorrow? Aren't you afraid that I will take the money and run away?" Nancy did not know what to say. She was stunned by what Chuck said.

"You're a smart woman. If I can fork out 10 billion dollars, it means that I don't need that 10 billion..." Chuck did not finish his sentence.

Nancy got his point. "Understood!"

She really understood. If a man could afford to invest 10 billion dollars in a business, how could he be concerned about her running away with it?

She couldn't run away with it, anyway!

Even if she could run away with the money, she would not be able to spend it.

"Alright, I'll come up with a plan in a few days. Let us research it together," Chuck said.

"Then, Yolanda will not be involved in this?" Nancy asked.

Yolanda absolutely would not have any problem with the plan.

"Yolanda is now in charge of the plaza, a hotel and a construction site. There's also a pharmaceutical company to deal with, and I have something else for her to do. She's busier than I am, therefore I will be responsible for the gemstone investment!" Chuck shrugged.

Yolanda's ability was not limited to these areas. Chuck wanted to expand his business in a short period of time!

Nancy looked at Yolanda with envy. She was so lucky to work for a boss like Chuck.

Yolanda felt that there was no problem. She could manage more things. Chuck wondered if he should hire an assistant for Yolanda, or find someone else.

After all, his business empire needed many talents.

"I understand." Nancy nodded.

"Okay, I'll hand over the three stones to you after the production line has been set up."

"Okay, Director Cannon!" Nancy lowered her head.

It was hard for her to address him like that, but from that moment on, she had become Chuck's employee.

"You don't have to call me that. You can just call me Chuck," Chuck said. He was not used to it.

"Okay."

"All right. I think everyone's hungry. Let's find a place to eat." Chuck's mood was quite good that day.

He had made a few hundred million dollars.

The commercial landscape was rapidly expanding.

Yolanda and Nancy both had no objection.

Yolanda was driving.

Chuck smiled and said, "Nancy, you don't have to be so restrained. Just relax a little. We're all friends now, there's no need to be so serious."

How could Nancy relax?

The man in front of her was super rich with a net worth of more than 100 billion dollars!

To rich people, her 200 million net worth was considered nothing. They were not on the same level.

How could she not be nervous?

Nancy lowered her head while Chuck did not say anything else. After all, they weren't too familiar with each other. It was normal that she could not relax!

Screech!

Suddenly, Yolanda stepped on the brake!

Nancy who was sitting behind, did not fasten her seat belt. She suddenly jerked forward when Yolanda braked suddenly.

However, Chuck reached out and held her.

Nancy's face was as red as an apple.

Because Chuck's hand accidentally touched her.

She did not lose her temper. Chuck did not do it on purpose, he did it out of kindness.

"Nancy, are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Nancy shook her head while she started blushing. In an instant, she became extremely reserved.

"Yolanda, what happened?" Chuck shrugged and asked.

He had good physical fitness, therefore even though the car had braked suddenly, he could react fairly quickly.

"There is an excavator on the road." Yolanda suddenly wondered why there was an excavator on the road.

What was going on?

Chuck looked out and sneered, "Yolanda, come to the back seat. Let me drive!"

"Okay!" Yolanda heard Chuck's serious tone and understood that something must have happened.

They switched positions.

"Could it be because someone is mad?" Nancy was rather experienced.

What Chuck did earlier was too astonishing. It was more than two billion dollars! It was normal for others to get mad!

"Well, it's okay. I promise that you both will be safe!" Chuck stepped on the accelerator with a rumbling sound.

When the engine roared, the car soon sped ahead.

Even if there was an excavator in front of him, he could go around it as there was a grass patch by the side of the road.

Nancy and Yolanda immediately fastened their seat belts. They had never encountered such a situation before!

They were scared and nervous.

"What the hell! This guy's driving skill is surprisingly good! Go after him now!" A man with glasses, Spencer, who was driving a Land Rover, sneered disdainfully.

Wasn't it normal for a young billionaire to be good at driving?

"Okay. If you want to play, let's play!"

Vroom! Vroom!

Seven Land Rovers rushed forward like mad beasts. They roared and chased after him!

"Go after him! Puncture the car tire!" Spencer laughed ferociously!

He was very excited about the mission, because he would be rewarded eight million dollars thereafter completion!

Vroom! Vroom!

One of his men fired a shot and it hit the tire. Boom! The tire burst instantly!

Screech!

The car shook violently and almost overturned!

Whoosh!

Seven Land Rovers surrounded the car. All the strong men inside the cars laughed at them. It was a simple mission!

It was easy money!

"Guys, get down. Pedro asked us to get it done clean!" Spencer smiled slightly.

Everyone in the cars got out. There were more than 20 of them!

They stared at Chuck's car like a tiger eyeing its prey!

"There are so many of them!" Nancy's face was pale. Yolanda's expression did not look good either, but she was calm. "Chuck, why don't we give them the stones?"

Staying alive was more important.

"It won't be that easy to rob my things! You two just wait for me in the car!" Chuck opened the door and went out.

"Don't go out! Chuck, you will die!" Yolanda turned pale. There were so many people outside, how could Chuck handle them alone?

"It's all right. I forgot to tell you, I'm good at fighting now," Chuck said with a smile.

Chapter 782

Chuck said that he was good at fighting?

Yolanda and Nancy were speechless!

Even if he was good at fighting, how could he handle so many people by himself? But there were dozens of people outside. How could he handle them alone?

Even Hercules could probably only handle four at once!

Not even the God of War could do it!

"Chuck, don't be stubborn! Give them the stones. Your life is more important. If you lose it, how can you set up your business empire?" Yolanda stopped Chuck.

How could she allow Chuck to go out by himself and die?

She could not just sit back and watch.

"Don't worry." Chuck shrugged.

"I can't. You're young and aggressive. I'm worried that you can't withstand their strength!" Yolanda emphasized.

Nancy nodded.

"That's right, Chuck. Give them the stones. Your life is more important!" Nancy said.

She was glad to have met a boss like Chuck that day. She did not want to see Chuck get beaten to death by them.

It was not worth it!

How could a super-rich person like Chuck in his prime time just die there like this?

"Those three are still discussing! Hey, there are two beautiful women in the car, and their bodies look great!"

"Boss, that one is beautiful. I like her!"

"F*ck! You like her? The boss always chooses first! Don't you know the rules?"

Everyone surrounded the car. Spencer looked at Yolanda and Nancy from head to toe with his fiery eyes!

He had seen many women, but his eyes lit up when he saw Yolanda and Nancy.

They were gorgeous!

"I did not expect that in addition to making money today, I would meet two beautiful women. Dudes, I'll enjoy myself first. You can have them when I'm done!"

Spencer laughed wildly in excitement. This transaction was really too great!

Even if he was not rewarded with a few million, it would be sufficient to get his hands on Yolanda and Nancy who were beauties.

"Let's go!"

Spencer could not wait any longer!

His gang was also very excited when they heard they could also be part of the action. Their eyes brightened in an instant.

Nancy's face turned pale. She started to panic under the gaze of those perverts. There were so many of them. Would she be tortured to death there?

Yolanda's face did not look good either.

"You see, this group of people will not let us go even if we gave them the stones!" Chuck already knew.

All men liked beautiful women. Needless to say, they all took an interest to Yolanda and Nancy!

"Chuck, let's run!" Yolanda forced herself to calm down.

"No need. Just wait for me a while, I'll be back in a moment." Chuck stepped forward.

"Chuck is going to die! There are too many of them!" Nancy was trembling.

Nancy had never encountered such a situation before. If she was meant to die, she would accept it with dignity. But if she were to be raped to death by so many men, Nancy could not accept it.

Yolanda did not answer. She did not know why, but Chuck's calmness gave her a sense of security, albeit being in such a dangerous situation.

She could not understand it herself.

Where did the sense of security come from?

"Let's have faith in Chuck!" Yolanda said.

The only thing they could do was to trust Chuck!

Because they were hopeless!

Nancy gave a wry smile. What other option did she have but to trust Chuck?

"Alas, I have such a bright future ahead of me, how could I die here?" Nancy thought to herself.

"Yolanda, I do not want to be harassed to death. So, just kill me later! No, the two of us will kill each other at the same time! This way, we will both die in honor!" Nancy's heart was filled with bitterness.

"Okay," Yolanda agreed. Up until that moment, she was still an honorable woman. How could she be insulted by those people?

"Don't blame Chuck. He will do his best!"

"I don't blame him. I can only blame myself for having such bad luck!" Nancy sighed. She was extremely worried.

Alas!

Yolanda did not say a word.

"Who sent you here?" Chuck asked with a shrug.

"Do you think it's necessary for a dead man to know?" Spencer said with a grim smile, "Get rid of him. It's time for us to enjoy our time with the ladies!"

"Alright!"

They were extremely excited!

"Well, if you don't say it now, I will ask you again later! Do you really want a fight? I can give you a chance. Leave now and I will spare your lives! What do you think of this deal?"

Chuck asked everyone on the spot.

But in return, everyone laughed at him!

"He's so foolish!"

"Is this a new way to beg for mercy? You're asking us to leave? How stupid are you to say that?"

Their sarcasm was ringing in his ears!

"Well, if you want to die, then I have no objection. Then, go ahead!" Chuck's eyes were cold as he said that.

"Do you want to start with me? I'll beat you to death..."

However, before he could say more...

Suddenly...

A fist was coming toward him somehow!

He was stupefied. He avoided the inconceivable speed, but a second later, another fist landed on his chest!

Crack!

His rib was broken!

Bang!

He flew like a piece of trash!

Bang!

He laid on the ground and twitched.

Blood flowed out from his mouth while he could not speak clearly. He soon died with a hint of reluctance in his voice.

In that instant, everyone fell silent. Laughter?

There was no laughter anymore!

Not even the sound of breathing could be heard.

They fell into a dead silence.

It was because of Chuck's punch!

Yolanda and Nancy were shocked! They could not believe what they had just seen. It was too fast. How did Chuck appear in front of that man and send him flying out with just a punch?

How did that happen?

It was like an illusion!

"Chuck is so awesome!" Nancy was unable to control herself. The scene was even more exciting than a movie!

"I did not know he was this good at fighting!" Yolanda's beautiful eyes twinkled.

At that moment, Chuck's sculpture-like figure was imprinted in her mind.

"F*ck! What happened? Is he dead?" Spencer was shocked.

One punch sent a person flying out, and even killed him?

It was too terrifying!

Everyone was in shock!

"Ah!"

"No! Don't!"

"Please don't hit me!"

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Chuck moved swiftly among them. Each time he moved, a person would fly out while spitting out blood. They could not withstand Chuck's punches. He was such a powerful man!

Chuck wore a special ring that weighed a few kilograms!

The power of one punch was equivalent to a few hundred pounds!

No human could withstand his punches at all!

In less than a minute, many people laid on the ground motionless. A few of them were howling and crying. They regretted they did not grab the chance to escape earlier! They even laughed at him!

It was too late to regret it!

"All done! I think it's time for you to tell me who sent you all here!" Chuck flexed his wrists while showing his shiny white teeth.
